(Special to The Times-Dispatch). CHARLOTTE, N. C., May 22,--Beautiful weather greatly swelled the crowds attracted to Mecklenburg's Declaration celebration to-day, and the second day was even a bigger success than the first. Following the morning concert by the Marine Band, there was a big military parade at noon, in which the United States troops, Marine Band, State bands and companies of National Guards in-fantry and artillery from both North and South Carolina took part. Governor Glenn and his personal staff, the United States and volunteer officers and city officials rode in carriages. The $100 prize offered for the State National Guard company making the best appearance was won by the company from Cornwell, S. C.

A feature of the performance was a human flog, arranged on an immense stand on a main street and composed of 1,200 little girls. They sang the "Star Spangled Bunner" as the Governor's party passed. The United States troops gave exhibition drills at the park this afternoon. There were two balloon ascensions, and three street carnivals did a thriving business. a thriving business. To-night there was an elaborate exhibition of fireworks.

To-morrow is expected to be the biggest day of the week. There will be, in addition to the other attractions, a floral parade in the morning and an illuminated parade at night, and at noon Hon. Champ Clark will address the people from a stand in Vance Park.

It is estimated that there are now sixty thousand strangers in the citymore than Charlotte can conveniently accommodate.

As the girl told of her uncle's treatment, a woman spectator fainted.

The girl hesitated in giving her testimony, saying that she was ashamed to speak it.

She said that her aunt had forced her to obey her uncle and had beaten her, breaking a stick during one of the whippings and maling the witness so sick she went to bed.

The girl said she was never permitted to play with other children and was forbidden to talk English or associate with the boarders in the house. She said she wanted to go to her mother, but was not permitted to.

She told of the circumstances which led her to kill the uncle, Gaetano, and her aunt, Concetta. She said that her husband, after listening to her confession, told her that she was no longer his wife and thereupon left her. She remained alone during the following ten days, subject, she said, to the influence of hallucinations in which her uncle appeared. Whenever he appeared, a voice said. "Kill him." Each night, the witness continued, she would dram or imagine that she was in the presence of God and there again she would hear the words "kill your uncle."

She remembered little of her attack, but asserted that she began to stab when her aunt came between her and Gaetna.
She did not remember which one she struck first.

Justice Scott, who is bearing the case, questioned the girl about the voices she claimed to have heard, and she told him that they came like a ringing in the ear. The trial was adjourned until to-morrow.

The County Board of Equilization recently sent word to a young woman living in Kansas City that her assessment had been raised $1,000. In a politely written note received a few days ago by the members of the Board at Independence, the young words and there must be a mistake. She said the only thing she had gotten was a new Easter hat, and it was a "dream," but she was sure it did not justify a raise of $1.800.

The Board decided that the point was well taken.—Kansas City Star.
